

Monday, October 15th:

Resource Space Race

11:30am-1:00pm

Mainstreet

Come learn about different resources on campus, receive giveaways, and eat some pizza with our Transfer Student Network Leaders!

Career Readiness

4:00-5:00pm

Math/Psych 210

Learn how the Career Center can assist you in becoming career ready from locating internship opportunities to landing your dream job.

Trivia Night

6:00-8:00pm

Sportszone

Join seb and OCSS for a fun night of UMBC trivia and food!

Tuesday, October 16th:

Night Under the Stars

4:00-6:00pm

Skylight

Join OCSS for a fun night of mixing and mingling with other transfer students. We will have a dessert and coffee bar, and professors from various academic departments, as well as familiar faces from local Community Colleges, will be there to socialize with you! This can be a great opportunity for you to learn about different departments or meet a future professor.

Flu Shot Clinic with UHS

4:30-6:30pm

OCSS Commuter Lounge

You don't want to get sick and not be able to enjoy the rest of Transfer Week, do you? Get your flu shot in the OCSS Commuter Lounge!

Study Night with Tau Sigma

6:00-8:00pm

Lower Flat Tuesdays

Have you heard of Tau Sigma? They are a student organization on campus/Honor Society specifically for transfer students! Come study for midterms, get some snacks, and learn how you can join.

Wednesday, October 17th:

Transfer T-Shirt Trade In

11:30am-1:00pm

Mainstreet

Want to trade in your previous institution's swag for a new UMBC Transfer Week shirt? Bring in anything you have from your former institution (shirts, hoodies, bags, etc.) and get a free galaxy-themed shirt! If you don't have anything from your former school, bring in a canned good or other non-perishable item to donate to Retriever Essentials. Everything we collect will be donated to a good cause! We will also be handing out those yummy Cosmic Brownies we all loved as kids, along with information on how to enter our social media contest for a grand prize!

*If you can't come to Mainstreet during this time, you can stop by OCSS at any point during the week to trade-in your items

Returning Women: Applying to Grad School

12:00-1:00pm

Women's Center

This event will cover what to expect when applying for grad school. We're excited to have Dr. April Householder, Director of Undergraduate Research and Prestigious Scholarships, join us to share important information about the process of applying for grad school, what to expect, adhering to deadlines, and planning for the future.

Coffee Break

1:00pm-3:00pm

Breezeway

Stop by the breezeway and get some free coffee in between classes!

Tour of the Observatory

7:30-9:30pm

PHYS 401

What better way to celebrate a galaxy-themed Transfer Week than hanging out at UMBC's own Observatory? Head to the Physics building to hear a short lecture about space and the observatory, and then get a tour of the Observatory. If the weather cooperates with us, we can even use the telescopes to look at the night sky!

Thursday, October 18th:

Game Night

5:00-7:00pm

Gameroom

We take games seriously in OCSS – especially Catch Phrase! Come to the Gameroom to get free tacos, relax with other transfers, and play some games with our TSN Leaders!

Space Out Zen Yoga

7:00pm-8:00pm

Writing Center

Join the Learning Resource Center for a night of yoga and snacks! Yoga mats will be provided, but feel free to bring your own if you have one.

Friday, October 19th:

Advising/Registration Info Table

9:00-11:00am

Mainstreet

Stop by the table to learn how you can sign up for an advising appointment, how to register for classes, and get any questions you may have about the process answered!

De-Stress with Slime

12:00-1:00pm

Lower Flat Tuesdays

The Counseling Center will be teaching us how to combat anxiety and stress while we munch on some Chick-Fil-A nuggets and fries! We will also have goodie bags for everyone, including stress-relieving galaxy-colored slime!
